

TRUE SACRIFICE SHOWN IN DONATION TO EDUCATION FUND

Old Purse and Gold Pieces Long In Family Are Given to Presbyterian Fund for Christian Education.

Director S. W. McGill in charge of the Presbyterian movement for Christian education in Kentucky has received a gift for the cause that he values as highly as any contribution ever made for Christian education, according to his statement. The director has in his Louisville office a little pocket purse, old-fashioned and worn, evidently made more than half a century ago. It came to him with a little note attached but no signature. In the purse were two gold pieces; of one dollar and two-fifty denominations, and the letter said this purse and the money had been in the family at least four generations and the original owner had left it to be passed down and kept until a dire necessity arose.

"The time has now come," said the letter, "when I consider a dire necessity here. The money is therefore given for the cause of Christian education."

"That," said Mr. McGill, "represents true sacrifice and a true vision of what our church needs. I only wish every Presbyterian in Kentucky could see the cause as did this one."

THE MENDELSSOHN MUSICAL CLUB.

This is one of the very best of musical organizations and is considered among the chautauqua producers one of the finest companies in the field. The six artists are headed by Mr. Howard Everts, for many years with Innes' Band and the Brooks Orchestra. His name is so well-known among artists of his type that it is safe to say he would head no company but the finest. We especially appeal to our music-lovers to be present at the two concerts given by the Mendelssohn Musical Club, as we promise a rare treat at the Chautauqua.

Director of Kentucky State Fair Says Colonel Russell's Advertising Is One of States Fair's Biggest.

The following letter is from Mr. Fred H. Blackburn, of Winchester, one of the directors of the Kentucky State Fair:

"Dear Colonel Russell:—Replying to your card. Can use five hundred of the post cards. If you can not spare that number send what you can, please. Will place them where they will do good.

"Your window cards are very attractive. An attractive card in a pretty show window is seen by many. Would be glad if you will send me some of the window cards, too.

"You are doing good work for the State Fair in the way of advertising it. I want to congratulate you and thank you for this good work. Your middle name should be 'Booster'."

INSTITUTE PROVING GREAT FEATURE AT RUGGLES THIS YEAR

Doing at Ruggles Campgrounds Are Interestingly Told by Our Live-Wire Correspondent—Institute To Be Permanent.

(By J. H. RICHARDSON.)

Ruggles Campgrounds, August 2.—The Institute is now in full swing. The schedule of study, devotional and recreational periods are going on like clock work. People are enjoying it more each day. Prof. Roberts director of recreation is giving the folks the best time possible. He is not only directing the play times but is going to begin a class tomorrow teaching how to direct the play life of the young people. Surely it is a thing much to be desired. It should help many to be better directors of picnics and church socials.

The day has been very fully. In addition to the regular morning Institute schedule Bishop Anderson held an important conference with the ministers at 1 o'clock. He was obliged to return to Cincinnati immediately following the conference.

Mrs. F. I. Johnson, of Columbus, dean of women had a great meeting at 2 o'clock. She again gave a very impressive and illuminating address at seven o'clock in the evening.

The evening service was an unusual one for variety. Following the address of Mrs. Johnson, Prof. Roberts gave a talk on the value of the cultivation of the social life of the church. This was followed by an address by Prof. Kilburn on rural church life. His address was followed by a very interesting talk by Rev. Lyon, of Covington, on the situation in England just preceding the World War. Rev. Lyon is just over about one year. Between talks Miss Huger entertained the big audience with many sunshiny songs. All in all it made a service of rare interest and helpfulness.

The annual meeting of the Campmeeting Association was held this afternoon. The association placed its O. K. on the work of the Board of Directors. The work of the Institute came in for much favorable comment. It was voted to combine the campmeeting and Epworth League program next year, the details to be worked out by the board and Dean Fort. The present board of directors was continued by the unanimous vote of the association. The financial affairs of the association were found correct by the auditing committee. The Association's officers elected are Rev. S. K. Hunt, chairman, W. S. Peters secretary, and J. H. Richardson, treasurer.

Revs. A. P. Smith, O. G. Hagan and A. C. Brown left for their places of work today.

Misses Mary Valentine, Hilda and Florence Tucker arrived today and will camp with Miss Rena Mae Coryell for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Starrett and sisters were visitors in the camp today.

Mr. Lester B. Hnke, president of the Bellevue Epworth League, arrived today to take in the Institute. Still more delegates are scheduled to arrive tomorrow.

Mrs. Ida McKee, of Bellevue is attending the Institute, and stopping at the Simons cottage.

Mr. Herman Clark returned home this evening after a few days of enjoyable camp life.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carpenter returned from Maysville this evening and will now remain until the close.

A. PIONEER'S SWISS YODLING SERENADERS.

If you were spending the summer climbing the Alps, many a pleasant evening you would pass, after a hard day's climb, listening to the native music of the Swiss mountaineers. The romantic strains from the Swiss yodlers would strike your ears intermingled with either notes coming from their Alpine instruments in the hands of Switzerland's own musicians. You may not experience the thrills of mountain climbing but you will be treated to all the local music of that little mountain republic, set off by the use of picturesque costumes, and heightened by the pleasing personality of Pioneer's Swiss Serenaders on Monday afternoon and evening, August 7, at the Chautauqua grounds.

FITCH'S CHAPEL TO CELEBRATE 90TH BIRTHDAY.

Rev. Fred W. Riley, of Aberdeen, pastor of Fitch's Chapel Methodist church located near Aberdeen, is planning a great celebration at that church on Sunday, August 13th at which time the church will be 90 years old. Former residents of that community have been invited to return on this date for a great community reunion.

HARDING NOMINATES HILLS- BORO MAN AS ATTORNEY

Colonel D. Q. Morrow Is Named as United States District Attorney For Southern Ohio.

Washington, August 2.—Colonel D. Q. Morrow, of Hillsboro, Ohio, today was appointed to be United States District Attorney for Southern Ohio.

President Harding sent his nomination to the Senate by messenger, but the Senate having adjourned out of respect to the late Senator William E. Crow, of Pennsylvania, whose death occurred early today, the message containing it was not officially received. It will be duly recorded when the Senate reconvenes tomorrow.

The Morrow nomination immediately was referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee, which, in the absence of any opposition, is expected to recommend confirmation at its regular meeting next Monday. The Senate then will vote to confirm at its next executive session, and Colonel Morrow may then assume the duties of his office as soon as he takes the usual oath.

By a coincidence he will succeed Captain Thomas H. Morrow, who was appointed acting District Attorney when James R. Clark resigned the District Attorneyship last April.

"THE SCRAPPER"

Thursday the Pastime presents Herbert Hawkinson, the scrappiest scrapper of the screen, in an Irish play that is a thrill from start to finish. In corduroys he was a fighting cyclone, in a dress suit he was a glorious lover, but when he mixed business and pleasure it is the busiest hour you ever saw on the screen.

This is Vadah's last day, he has mystified the audiences and created quite a sensation he answers all questions. Come prepared to ask him—know your future, if you miss this you will regret it.

NEW EVIDENCE IN RENAKER CASE NOT TO BE MADE PUBLIC

Winchester Sun Says Theory Is Advanced By Number of People That Band of Law Breakers Secures Data and Inform Guilty.

Winchester, Ky., Aug. 3.—The Winchester Sun says: "Detectives from the Cal Crim Detective Agents who were called into headquarters on Sunday afternoon, have returned to Winchester and began further investigations in the slaying of Leon Renaker.

"Additional evidence has been secured since Monday afternoon, but will not be made public by the officers and detectives. Every possible clue that has been given the officers is being sifted to the bottom and it is felt that by keeping the information which they have secured from the public that they will be able to secure more valuable information than they would were it spread broadcast.

"The theory has been advanced by a number of residents that there is a well organized band of lawbreakers who have representatives that are securing all data that is being secured by the local authorities and are turning it over to them which tends to keep the guilty party or parties posted as to just what procedure is being made from time to time.

"Winchester, as all residents fully realize, is not free from a lawbreaking element that would not leave a stone unturned to protect a member of the band who had committed a crime and for this reason certain information which has been given out has been detrimental to the progress of the officials who are bending their every effort to see that the murderer is apprehended.

"The detectives have some well founded clues that they are sifting to the very bottom and have information that it is thought will eventually lead to an arrest. Suspects are being shadowed in an effort to secure information that would clear up the mystery."

Mr. George H. Frank is attending the Ripley Fair today.

LAST COMMUNITY LUNCHEON TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY EVENING

Head of Talent Bureau and Superintendent of Chautauqua to Speak At Friday's Luncheon.

The last of a series of Community Luncheons given by the Civics Committee for the benefit of the American Legion Chautauqua, is scheduled for the Legion Home in Sutton street Friday at noon.

Two prominent out-of-town speakers will be present for this luncheon. They are Mr. Shaw, head of the talent bureau furnishing talent for the Legion Chautauqua which opens at Beechwood Park on Sunday and Dr. Ewert, Superintendent and Morning Hour Lecturer of the Chautauqua.

Invitations for this luncheon have been sent out by the committee and an entirely new list of business men have been invited this time. Others were invited at previous meeting of the kind. A most interesting and delightful meeting is promised.

FEROCIOUS FELINE.

Last Friday morning while little Annie Ruth Hutchison, daughter of Mr. Chas. Hutchison, was playing with her pet kitten it suddenly bit her. She carried the kitten to the house when she noticed that it was dead. Some of the family picked it up and in so doing the fur slipped from it and when the doctor was told this, he insisted that it had been sent to the State Board of Health for examination, which was done immediately. It is to be hoped that it was not affected with rabies but it is always best to be sure in cases of this kind.—Ripley Bee.

TWO POLICEMEN SUS- PENDED TO BE GIVEN HEARING TONIGHT

Mayor Samuel Suspend Sergeant Carey and Patrolman Simpson on Written Charges Filed by Councilman.

Acting upon written charges filed with him by Dr. J. A. Dodson, member of Council, Mayor J. H. Samuel Thursday suspended Police Sergeant Lee Carey and Patrolman Murray Simpson.

These suspensions will be reported by Mayor Samuel to Council at the regular semi-monthly meeting of that body tonight and the Chief Executive will ask immediate action on the charges by Council. The Mayor Thursday stated that he postponed temporary suspension of these officers until Thursday to that the city could be saved the cost of the salaries of special policemen pending the hearing. If Council makes the suspension of either of them final, temporary appointments will be made.

It is understood that Council will probably hear the charges against both officers as a whole instead of referring the investigations to their police committee, as is usually the case, because of the fact that in the Sergeant Carey case, the police committee has already held an investigation which resulted in no recommendation for suspension being filed.

OUR POLICY:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such proposition as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

SPECIAL ROAD TAX—NOT BOND ISSUE.

Fayette county's road engineer, recognized as one of the best in the state of Kentucky, has looked over Mason county's roads and has gone into the local situation carefully.

He advises against a bond issue and recommends a special twenty-cent road tax.

Aside from the fact that his advice is expert advice, we believe it is good common sense and will appeal to the people of Mason county. If we vote a million dollar bond issue, we will be paying interest on the money and will, within a number of years have the bonds to retire while if we vote an extra twenty-cent tax, we will be enabled to keep up our system of highways with our regular road tax not reduced by paying interest as they are now being kept up and with the extra twenty-cent assessment put one of our main traffic arteries into such condition each year that it can be taken in as a state highway and be maintained by the state road department. Within a number of years we will have all of our main highways in good condition and turned over to the state under their maintenance plan. We will then owe no bonds and have our regular road tax fund each year to care for our smaller roads, which certainly deserve some attention.

The extra twenty-cent tax may be required for no more than five or six years.

This extra twenty-cent road tax cannot be assessed unless the people authorize it by their vote. We believe the people of Mason county want good roads bad enough at this time to favor such a plan for the betterment of our highway system throughout the county.

CHEER IN THE SCRAPHEAP

When we first catch sight of primitive man against the dim backgrounds of the past, he is stocked up with a fearful and wonderful collection of beliefs in things that are not so—such as devil worship, sympathetic magic, astrology, human sacrifice, torture, witchcraft. These his descendants have scrapped.

At least half of progress consists in getting rid of ideas that are not so. With this in mind it is no Pollyanna pose to say that progress has made tremendous strides in the last eight years, although at cruel cost.

Three deep and persistent delusions are headed for the scrapheap. One is glorification of the thing called war, at best an ugly necessity, usually the stupidist form of large-scale suicide. The glamor is off it, it may be for good.

The second delusion is that governments can make people wealthy by issuing promises to pay. There was long a Greenback party in this country, and after that a Free Silver party. From the example of Russia, Germany and Austria the lesson has been learned that instead of enriching men inflation robs them. No man who has cashed $100 of good American money at a Berlin bank and received in return a seven-pound package of 20-mark notes will ever list again to a paper "money" advocate.

The third delusion is that governments can make people prosperous and happy by running their business and personal affairs for them. This is called Socialism, Bolshevism, but it has a truer name—it is human slavery. The Russian example demonstrates that if it takes nine tailors to make a man, it takes seven Bolsheviks to make a real workman. The lesson is being digested.

If you doubt that men are getting along, look in the scrapheap.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

MANDATE AGREEMENT

Complete agreement has been reached between the United States and Great Britain over the terms of the mandates for Palestine and the former German Colonies in Africa. The revised draft of the mandates has been reported to the council of the league of nations and ratified. The action marks the close of negotiations initiated by the United States to protect the rights of Americans in the mandated territories. As originally drawn, the mandates would have excluded Americans from participation in the development of the resources of the former German colonies. The allies proceeded on the theory that, inasmuch as this country was not a member of the league of nations which granted the mandates, it could have no interest in their terms. Secretary Hughes was prompt to explain that our rights were won in the war, and it was not within the power of any league of nations to take them from us.

BEECHWOOD PICNICS.

Beechwood Park has become the most popular and famous picnic grounds in northeastern Kentucky. Sunday schools have come from many neighboring counties not only in Kentucky but they have come from Ohio too and have enjoyed the day under the cooling shade of the park's old beech trees or have enjoyed a dip in the beautiful Ohio on Beechwood's wonderful beach. We understand that there is a school coming next week from Nicholas county far beyond Carlisle and near Cynthiaana. The future for Beechwood looks rosy if the public appreciates the park and shows its appreciation, we know it is managed by men who will be continually on the alert to improve and make it more attractive.

HARD JOB TO PLEASE THE PUBLIC.

The Mason County Board of Education has a hard problem before it just now in selecting the location of the proposed new Consolidated School building for Lewisburg. There are some nine sites offered the board and there are warm supporters for each of the nine sites. Just which one will best serve the purpose is a big question. Someone is going to be displeased with the action of the board no matter which site is selected. It's a hard job to please the public.

Before us lies a circular letter issued by one of our local banks upon which is printed these words: "That action is best which procures happiness for the greatest number."

Dubuque Times-Journal—After the railroad strike is ended we'll be hearing a great deal about another car shortage.

CAUSES OF BLINDNESS IN AMERICA NAMED

Census Bureau Makes Very Interesting Announcement on Blindness in Country.

Washington, D. C., August 2.—The Department of Commerce announces results of the inquiry into the causes of blindness, made in connection with the 1920 census.

Schedules, or questionnaires, were mailed to all persons reported in 1920 as blind. Of the 52,567 blind enumerated, there were 46,913 who returned these schedules. Of these 35,788 reported the cause of blindness.

In 13,816 or 38.6 per cent of these 35,788 cases for whom the cause was reported, the blindness was caused by some specific disease of the eye such as cataract or glaucoma; and in 5,623 cases or 15.7 per cent, it was a result of some general disease such as measles, meningitis, or scarlet fever. Accidents accounted for 5,913 cases or 16.5 per cent of the total. There were 1,429 persons in this number whose blindness was caused by explosives or firearms.

Cataract, the leading cause, was reported by 4,896 or 13.1 per cent. Glaucoma, which ranked next, was reported by 1,923, or 5.4 per cent. Atrophy of the optic nerve was given as the cause by 1,756, or 4.9 per cent.

Ophthalmia neonatorum, or "babes' sore eyes," was reported by 1,198, or 3.3 per cent, of the total number reported. That there has been a marked decrease in the relative amount of blindness due to this disease is indicated by recent statistics of admissions to schools for the blind, which show that only 14.7 per cent of the new students admitted in 1917-1918 were reported as blind from ophthalmia, as against 24.2 per cent of the students then attending who had entered in previous years. This decrease reflects the more general adoption of scientific methods of treatment, and especially the routine use of silver nitrate drops in the eyes of infants.

The campaign to eliminate trachoma appears also to be meeting with success, as trachoma and "sore eyes" (which is usually a tract trachoma) together were reported by only 3.0 per cent, of the total for 1920, as against 5.2 per cent, of 1910.

THE STRANGER WITHIN THE GATES.

One of the settings which Richard Walton Tully has built for the screen version of his famous Persimmon play, "Omni the Tentmaker," at the United Studios in Los Angeles, shows the home of Imam Mawaffak (Teacher of the Holy Word, surrounded with palm trees, fountains, rose-arbors and beautiful flower beds, — a typical Persian landscape that Omar Khayyam himself would have revelled in. One day recently, just as "shootout" for the day was about completed, a strange-looking swarthy individual was noticed loitering around with the manner of a man beset with a consuming silent emotion.

Tully approached him, and asked the nature of his visit.

"There are but six Mohammedans here I know of in Los Angeles," said the stranger, "and although I have been here over a year, I am sad and homesick. If you will only permit me to tarry here a while, I shall be very happy. It seems like home to me."

Tully readily granted the request, and when the "set" was despatched, the stranger was noticed to kneel towards Mecca, and pray.

COLORED CITIZENS.

The M. E. church at Washington greeted their pastor, Rev. G. W. Shepard with a reception Saturday evening, July 29. Rev. Mr. Shepard had just returned from Atlanta, Ga., bringing with him his bride, the bride is a graduate of Clark College, and was a teacher in the city school of Atlanta. The welcome address was delivered by Mrs. Tunter Greene. Mrs. Thomas Higgins was mistress of ceremonies, each department of the church was represented by good strong papers. The male trio was excellent, while the Baptist church was represented by a splendid paper read by Mrs. William Wadsworth. A solo by Mrs. Bessie Breckinridge, Mrs. L. S. Henderson made a few remarks which were well received. After the program Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Sue Marshall Wadsworth and the audience, led by the bride and groom, marched to the hall which was beautifully decorated where they sat down to a feast long to be remembered.

SCIENTIFIC LITERATURE CONTRIBUTED TO RUSSIA

Physicians Having Medical Journals to Be Disposed of, Asked to Contribute Them.

Kentucky has donated more food to starving Russia. Through the contribution of technical literature made to the American Relief Administration by the College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky, Russian scientists will receive almost their first contact with current intellectual life since the beginning of the great war.

"Any American physician who has filed a medical journal to dispose of," said Dr. Henry Beeuwkes, chief of the medical division of the American Relief Administration in Russia, "could confer no greater boon upon the medical fraternity of Russia than to turn these over to the American Relief Administration to dispose of. Many of the Russian doctors have not seen a medical journal from the outside world in years. They are pathetically grateful for those that have been sent them from America."

The literature is being gathered under the auspices of the Russian Scientific Aid Society of which Dr. Vernon Kellogg, is the director and it is requested that all further donations to this cause be sent care of E. W. Gerzen and Company, Custom House Brokers, 70 West Street, New York City. Twenty-two American cities have sent scientific and pamphlets and among the other states who have contributed to Russian scientists are: New York, Massachusetts, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Georgia, Maine, Idaho, Minnesota, Illinois and New Jersey.

Hemorrhages and Constipation take the joy out of life for many women—HOLLISTER'S ROCKY MOUNTAIN TEA owes its great popularity to women who endorse it strongly. J. J. Wood & Son.

UNCLE TED'S BED-TIME STORIES.

It was pouring rain and so the best laid plans of Ruth, Jack and their devoted Uncle Ted were spoiled. Uncle Ted was going to take them for a long drive and let them stay up a little later than usual but now the trip necessarily had to be put off and the two kiddies were sitting on the front porch watching the great streams of water pour down the street, and hoping that the rain wouldn't keep Uncle Ted away until they had to go to bed.

"Freddie got a long letter from his brother today," spoke up Jack.

"He did?" exclaimed Ruth. "How is he?"

"Just fine. You know he sure got banged up in the war but he writes that he is in a new hospital put up by the Treasury Department at Washington and that he is getting the finest treatment you can think of."

"What's that about a hospital?" said Uncle Ted, as he came up the walk.

"So Freddie's brothers is in one of those new hospitals. Say, that gives me an idea," he continued as he sat down and threw his hat and raincoat over another chair. "You kiddies ought to know what has been done for the disabled soldiers in the way of hospitals in the last year. I had a long letter from Colonel Edward Clifford the other day. He is Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and has charge of the Public Health service under which these hospitals are handled. He is one of the finest, finest men you ever met and having served in the war himself he is keen to do everything in his power for the disabled soldier. I asked him what had been done by the Treasury for the ex-soldier and he wrote me in detail.

"In the early spring of 1921 Congress passed an bill appropriating $18,600,000 for the building of these new soldier hospitals by the Treasury Department. Everybody was anxious that these hospitals be completed as quickly as possible. The job was up to Col. Clifford and he proved that it was not too big for him by completing one a month for fourteen months. Most of these are large hospitals and they are located in all parts of the United States.

"The addition of these fourteen hospitals in as many months means that 4,700 more Government-owned beds have been added to the equipment of the Veterans' Bureau for treating all classes of patients including those suffering from tuberculosis and mental diseases. The cost of this equipment was about fourteen and a half million dollars.

"Uncle Ted," said Jack, "did they just put these hospitals up any old place?"

"No indeed, Jack. Great care was used in selecting places where the climate would not add to the troubles of the unfortunate men already forced to seek hospital attention. In addition to the care used in selecting sites, the Treasury Department made sure that these buildings should be made the finest structures that present day knowledge of hospitals could make them. In addition to being built so that every bit of light and air might be obtained, they are all as fireproof as up-to-the-minute plans could make them.

"These fourteen hospitals recently completed are not all. When the present Administration has been in office eighteen months, the United States Treasury Department will have completed 20 hospitals, equipped with a total of 6,300 beds at a total cost of $19,000,000. Besides these twenty, work is being rapidly done on the last four hospitals which will provide 1,250 more beds totaling a total of $5,133,350. When these last four are completed the work provided for by Congress and turned over to the Treasury, will have been finished. Counting the cost of all these new hospitals and all modern equipment, the completed cost will be approximately $25,000,000. That seems like a lot of money but when you immediately remember that

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK KIDNIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Pains of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so many weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strain, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened, the whole body suffers. Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Don's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys.

No need to take the statement of someone living far away as evidence. Here is a case right in this locality. A. Sorries, gun and locksmith, Aberdeen, Ohio, says: "My experience with Don's Kidney Pills leads me to recommend them strongly. My kidneys were irregularly and the secretions contained sediment. I had backaches and when I stooped it was difficult to straighten again. Colds always settled on my back and kidneys. I used Don's Kidney Pills and they put a stop to the trouble."

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER, Mr. Sorries said: "I am the same strong believer in Don's Kidney Pills. I have had no trouble with my kidneys since recommending Don's." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-McBarn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

EIGHT THOUSAND BEDS have been provided for the veterans who offered their all during the Great War, we can feel proud that we have men at Washington who are insisting that these ex-soldiers receive the finest treatment and have the best that money can buy. "Another interesting point about these hospitals is that they are not crowded in cities or between buildings so that the patients are shut off from light and air. Every one of these new buildings is located in spacious grounds from thirty-one acres in the heart of New York City to 5,000 acres at Dawson Springs, Kentucky. The fact that plenty of ground is furnished around these hospitals will mean that those in charge will be able to raise all fresh vegetables fruits and many foodstuffs for the patients not to mention the room for recreation for these who are rapidly on the road to recovery.

"Now I think I will give you the location of these new hospitals which are completed: Fort Logan H. Roots Little Rock, Ark.; Alexandria, La.; Lako City, Florida; Whipple Barracks Prescott, Ariz.; Fort McKenzie, Wyoming; Fort Walla Walla, Washington; Bronx, New York City; Fort Bayard, New Mexico; Perryville, Maryland; Edward Hines, Jr., Hospital, Chicago, Ill.; Dawson Springs, Ky.; Mr. Alto, Washington, D. C.; Norfolk, Va. and Excelsior Springs, Mo.

"The projects now under construction and nearing completion are located at: Rutland, Mass.; Annapolis, Md.; Milwaukee, Wis.; Dayton, Ohio; Marion, Indiana, and Olean, N. C. "Last of all, by next December a large hospital at Palo Alto, California, will be completed furnishing 500 additional beds at a cost of $1,262,619. "So kiddies, we can point with pride to this work and congratulate these men at Washington who have worked hard that the right treatment might be provided for the ex-soldier who must be made well again."

THE OLD M. & M. AGAIN.

Probably you don't know off-hand what M. and M. stands for, so we'll what you up. It is short for old Maysville and the Mountain.

No go on with the story. Richard Walton Tully, producing his film-version of "Omni, the Tentmaker," wanted all his out-door shots to appear as nearly Persian as possible. Not being able to locate any suitable locations near Los Angeles, he went to the island of Catlina, where he found scenes so like Persian landscapes that even the oldest inhabitant of Persia would be fooled, he claims. Consequently the entire "Omni, the Tentmaker" company were transported to Catlina for two or three weeks.

"I'm satisfied," Tully said, after looking over the exteriors, "because Omar II, my Persian cat, almost had a fit of delight when he cast his critical eye over the scenes we were taking, looked up at me, and meowed, as if to say: 'Home was always like this,' curled up, and slept peacefully."

FARM POULTRY EXHIBIT WILL BE MADE AT FAIR.

Lexington, Ky. — Plans already are well under way for the poultry standardization exhibit which will be made by county poultry associations for the third consecutive year at the coming Kentucky State Fair, according to J. R. Smith, poultry extension specialist of the College of Agriculture, who will have charge of the event. At least 20 of the counties that have adopted a standard breed of poultry are expected to enter birds in the exhibit which has developed into one of the largest farm poultry exhibits in the country, he said.

Each county exhibit will be made up of 32 birds, these being divided into two pens of aged birds, two pens of young birds and three entries each in the cock, cockerel, hen and pullet classes. Entries will compete individually and as county exhibits. A number of cash and special prizes this year will be offered again as has been the case for the last two years.

As a part of the poultry standardization campaign which has been carried on over the state for a number of years by the college extension division, the standardization exhibit at the fair has experienced a rapid development. Eight counties were represented when the event first took place two years ago while last year 15 county poultry associations sent representative birds from the flocks of their members. The exhibit has been designed to stimulate interest in pure-bred poultry and at the same time afford the farmer an opportunity to exhibit his best birds.

SENATE TO VOTE ON

TARIFF AUGUST 17.

Washington, Aug. 3. — The Senate will vote on the tariff bill August 17, under a compromise agreement between Republican and Democratic leaders reached today.

This will bring an end in two weeks a debate lasting since April 20 and marked at all times by unusual partisan bitterness.

The August 17 vote, however, will not see the tariff bill safely past the shoals and rocks, for the conference between the two houses over amendments made by the Senate admittedly means trouble for the bill.

MURDER OVER CARDS.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 3. — With his face and head beaten and marks of strangulation on his neck, Chas. Clupman, 27, was found murdered on the Pennsylvania tracks here Thursday.

A trail of blood through a yard and out onto the tracks, showed where the body had been dragged.

A card game led to the murder, police said, after talking to witnesses.

A stock company with a capital stock of $10,000 and to be known as the Ohio Valley Publishing Company, has been organized to publish a new weekly newspaper in August to be known as "The Augusta Independent." The newspaper will be edited by M. L. Flora of Brookville.

PRESIDENT'S CABINET
AGAIN CONSIDERING
STRIKE QUESTION

Fear of Sympathy Strikes Is Now Growing — Will Says Backbone of Shop Crafts Strike Is Broken.

Washington, Aug. 3. — Whether the administration, its peace overtures having failed, shall pursue a "hands-off" policy so long as the public interest is not menaced seriously and permit the rail and coal strikes to be fought out to a finish was discussed today by President Harding and his cabinet.

Harding now has no immediate plans for settling either strike, and the test of strength may be allowed to continue for a while.

The railroad executives want to fight their own battle, believing they can crush the shop crafts' unions and bring the men to terms. The bulk of the coal operators feel the same way, and there is a disposition among some of Harding's advisers to let the disputants fight it out.

Other advisers, however, fear the consequences of such a policy for these reasons:

That the country already is suffering and every day the strikes continue conditions will become worse.

That, if the shop crafts' unions show signs of giving away, the big railroad brotherhoods may call a sympathetic strike, paralyzing the entire country.

Color was given this view by a high official of the American Federation of Labor, who said:

"The shop crafts will not lose their fight."

On the other hand, eastern railroad executives profess to believe the strike is broken. Gains in shop forces were claimed today.

Recruiting will go on, John G. Walcher, speaking for all eastern roads said, until shop forces are at full strength.

Wall street watched progress of the strike with interest and pronounced the strike won for the carriers. Charles E. Mitchell, president of the National City Bank of New York, said:

"Reply of the railroads to President Harding was just what it should have been. There was nothing else to do."

SENATOR REED SEEMS CERTAIN OF VICTORY

Severe Blow to Former President Wilson and His Supporters Is Apparent Victory of League's Bitter Foe.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 3.—Senator James A. Reed apparently had won the fiercest storm of his political life today.

Complete returns from all except 443 precincts in Tuesday's state primary, showed Reed had a lead of 8,935 over Breckenridge Long, his opponent for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

The missing precincts were in sections where Long is strongest, but it seemed Reed's lead could not be overcome.

R. R. Brewster, Republican senatorial candidate, held a 40,000 majority and indications were missing precincts would swell his total.

The state renominated 12 Republican congressmen and one Democrat. Two contests still were doubtful.

W. Y. Morgan was leading in the Republican gubernatorial race in Kansas. Jonathan Davis led in the Democratic gubernatorial race.

Congressman Phil Campbell, chairman of the House Rules Committee, was defeated in the Third district for renomination. Other Kansas congressmen were renominated.

J. C. Walton, running in the Democratic primary in Oklahoma as a Farmer-Labor candidate for governor, easily defeated other aspirants. John Fields won in the Republican contest.

Miss Alice Robertson was renominated for Congress in the Second Oklahoma district, but Manuel Herrick, "dare-devil congressman," was defeated in the Eighth district.

OPPOSE CREATION NEW

Covington, Ky., Aug. 3. — Petitions opposing the creation of an additional federal judicial district in Kentucky have been sent to Washington by attorneys in various cities in Eastern Kentucky. It was announced today.

It is contended that an additional district is not necessary. The state at present is divided into two districts, eastern and western. Opponents of the measure proposing the creation of a third judicial district declare that in the event of congestion in either district, one of 25 special federal judges could take care of the work. The petitions signed in the eastern district state that Judge Cochran is fully capable of handling the business in his district, where Judge Evans has disposed of large dockets.

Mr. Harold Campbell, of Flemingsburg, is here Thursday to attend the Lexington-Maysville game.

Dr. Otis Sutton, of Norwood, Ohio, is visiting old friends and relatives at Aberdeen and taking in the Ripley fair.

SQUABBLE IN BASE-BALL OVER OWNER-SHIP OF WRIGHT

Pitcher Said to Belong to Pittsburgh Team Was Fanned Out to Winchester—Contention Put Up To Judge Landis.

The straight of the "Rasty" Wright problem now confronting the officials of the Bluegrass League as to his ownership.

Wright who is property of the Pittsburgh Nationals was fanned out or loaned to the Winchester Club of the Bluegrass League and a string was kept on him by the big league club so that he could be recalled later in the season after gaining experience.

In this case it was not necessary for him to sign a Winchester contract since he was property of Pittsburgh and subject to their orders. However he signed a Winchester contract and for some reason was given a release so that he might sign up with Lexington which he did, pitching his first game last Sunday at Lexington defeating Maysville. Several days later President Dreyfus of the Pittsburgh team orders Wright to return to Winchester but Lexington refuses to release him and he is carded to pitch against the Cards again Thursday afternoon.

President Russell is waiting a decision of Judge Landis to decide the matter before any action is taken and should he be returned to Winchester the Maysville games will not be protested.

Miner whom the Cards have purchased from Paris will likely oppose Wright on the mound.

Howard Camnitz hero of the world's series of 1909 with Pittsburgh has been signed to manage the Winchester club and is expected to take up his duties with Thursday's game.

Short stop Van Winkle of the Winchester Dodgers has been let out by that club which makes another prospect for the local club. What a change Van Winkle, Kuhlman and Meadows would make if added to the club roster.

COWS, HORSES KILLED IN GRAVES COUNTY STORM.

Mayfield. — Several persons were shocked during an electrical storm which passed over this county. Lightning struck the home of G. P. Pitman, near Lynville and three cows were killed in the vicinity. Two horses were killed by a bolt in the North Mt. Zion section.

It is reported that there was a very heavy hail storm at Manchester Thursday morning doing much damage to tobacco.
